In Figure 6, replace the entire drawing with the attached drawing which has the shading removed and which has the correct paper size, margin size, and character size, as required by the Official Draftsperson;

In Figure 9, remove the semi-colon ";" in block 904; and

In Figure 12, add a reference number --1200-- to the top block, add a reference number --1202-- to the next block from the top, add a reference number --1204-- to the third block, and add a reference number --1206-- to the fourth and final block.

REMARKS

Applicants have requested the foregoing drawing changes to conform the drawings with the specification and to make corrections required by the Official Draftsperson.

Applicants have requested changes to Figure 2 to show the relationship and/or flow of execution between various modules of the invention. The lines and arrowheads added to Figure 2 do not introduce new matter because pages 9-20 of the specification and original Figure 12 provide a description of the relationship and/or flow of execution between the modules. In particular, the line from the SNMP MODULE 204 to the ALERT MANAGER MODULE 202 is described in the specification on page 19 at lines 25-27. The line from the SNMP MODULE 204 to the NETWORK MAP WINDOW MODULE 212 is described on page 9 at lines 27-29. The line from the NETWORK MAP WINDOW MODULE 212 to the SERVER ALERT MODULES 214 is described on page 9 at lines 27-30. The line from the NETWORK MAP WINDOW MODULE 212 to the ALERT MANAGER MODULE 202 is described on page 12 at lines 21-23. The line from the NETWORK MAP WINDOW MODULE 212 to the LOG MANAGER MODULE 224 is described in the flow chart of Figure 12. The line between the LOG MANAGER MODULE 224 to the LOG WINDOWS ENTRIES MODULE 220 is described on page 11 at lines 13-15 and on page 20 at lines 22-24. The line between the ALERT MANAGER MODULE 202 and the LOG MANAGER MODULE 224 is described on page 20 at lines 15-17.

Appl. No. : 8/942,005
Filed : October 1, 1997

In Figure 9, block 904 contains a misplaced semi-colon, which should be removed.

In Figure 12, the four blocks are numbered 1200 through 1206 to be consistent with page 20 of the specification at lines 18-30.

In the Notice of Draftsperson's Patent Drawing Review, the Official Draftsperson objected to Figures 3-6 because of the size of the paper was improper, Figures 3-6 for unacceptable lines, numbers and letters, and Figures 3-6 for illegible and undersized numbers and reference characters. In response, Applicants have revised Figure 3-6 to overcome the Official Draftsperson's objections. No new matter is introduced by any of the changes to Figures 3-6. Because of the nature of the corrections, Applicants have not attached drawings with the changes shown in RED. Rather, Applicants are submitting a copy of substitute drawings for Figures 3-6, and Applicants respectfully request approval of the substitute drawing.

By separate letter, Applicants are submitting a set of substitute formal drawings to the Official Draftsperson. Applicants are enclosing a courtesy copy of the set of substitute formal drawings for the Examiner's review.

Respectfully submitted,
